Trainer Profiles

(Trainers are listed in order of years training with us)

Paul Stolzenburg has been an agility instructor with it's a dog's world since 1998! Paul is a graduate of White Mountain Agility School in Sandwich, NH. He has been judging agility events since 1995 and has judged over 100,000 runs since that time. He currently is a Masters Judge Supervisor for USDAA and is one of only twelve course reviewers in the U.S. for this organization. Paul resides with a Black Lab, Walt and a Chinook, Bree.

Renee Gordon has been with it's a dog's world since 1999 and our manager since 2003. She describes loving her job more now than when she started! Although managing daily operations is her first priority, she has contributed much to designing our many courses. She also teaches manners courses. Renee is an AKC Canine Good Citizen Evaluator and member of NACSW. She resides with her Rhodesian Ridgeback, Bronson, and English Cocker Spaniel, Rudder.

Sue Burrell has been with it's a dog's world since 2000. She is a multiple Best In Show International Professional Handler showing dogs all over the world. She has achieved more than 20 different championships such as: Champion of the Americas, Canada, Austria and the Dominican Republic and averages 15 new champions each year. She has multiple wins in Best of Breed, Group Wins and Best in Show titles.

Pam Belcher has been with it's a dog's world since 2001. Pam teaches nose work, manners, agility, a number of our specialty courses. She is a Certified Nose Work Instructor (CNWI), Judge and Certifying Official for the National Association of Canine Scent Work (NACSW). She is also an AKC Certified Canine Good Citizen Evaluator and is available for private lessons and behavior consults. Pam has competed in USDAA and NADAC agility competitions and currently competes in K9 Nose Work <sup>TM</sup>. She has NW2 titles on 2 of her 3 dogs. She lives, works and plays with her Australian Shepherd, Quattro. She is an APDT and NASCW member and regularly attends workshops and lectures on canine behavior and modification as well as the sport of K9 Nose Work <sup>TM</sup>.

Danielle Annis has been with it's a dog's world since 2006 instructing all levels of manners and specialty courses as well as private manners lessons. One of the programs she enjoys instructing the most at it's a dog's world is our Me & My Dog summer kids camp - she loves interacting with kids and their dogs. Danielle is an AKC Certified Canine Good Citizen Evaluator and regularly attends seminars and lectures on behavior modification. She resides with 2 Rottweilers Cheyenne and Simba.

Holly Roche joined our nose work instructor program in 2011. Holly and her Greyhound BoomBoom regularly attend nose work events such as NASCW sanctioned trials and mock trials. BoomBoom, with Holly as his handler, was the first Greyhound in the country to have achieved his Nose Work level 1 & Nose Work level 2 titles! BoomBoom has now earned his NW3 title with a pronounced designation. Holly is a Certified Nose Work Instructor (CNWI) and a current member of NACSW™. In addition to BoomBoom, Holly resides with Logan, also a Greyhound who is trialing at the Elite level.

Christina Blair joined our training team in 2016 first as a training assistant for manners, agility and nose work courses. In 2017, due to her love for the nose work sport, she started teaching our introductory levels. Christina is an active member of NACSW, currently an associate nose work instructor (ANWI). She is completing the necessary NACSW training program to become a certified nose work instructor (CNWI). Christina regularly volunteers and attends NACSW trials, seminars and workshops. She resides with Tank, an English Bulldog, who has passed all 3 of his ORT's and Molly, a hound X, who has her NW1 and is working towards her NW2.
