

Trainer Profiles

(Trainers are listed in order of years training with us)

Paul Stolzenburg has been an agility instructor with it's a dog's world since 1998! Paul is a graduate of White Mountain Agility School in Sandwich, NH. He has been judging agility events since 1995 and has judged over 80,000 runs since that time. He currently is a Masters Judge Supervisor for USDAA and is one of only seven course reviewers in the U.S. for this organization. Paul resides with a Black Lab, Walt and a Chinook, Bree.

Renee Gordon has been with it's a dog's world since 1999 and our manager since 2003. She describes loving her job more now than when she started! Although managing daily operations is her first priority, she has contributed much to designing our many courses. She also teaches manners courses. Renee is an AKC Canine Good Citizen Evaluator and member of NACSW. She resides with her Rhodesian Ridgeback, Bronson, and English Cocker Spaniel, Rudder.

Sue Burrell has been with it's a dog's world since 2000. She is a National and International Professional Handler showing dogs all over the world. She has achieved more than 20 different championships such as: Champion of the Americas, Canada, Austria and the Dominican Republic and averages 15 new champions each year. She has multiple wins in Best of Breed, Group Wins and Best in Show titles.

Pam Belcher has been with it's a dog's world since 2001. Pam teaches nose work, manners, agility, a number of our specialty courses. She is an AKC Certified Canine Good Citizen Evaluator and Certified Nose Work Instructor (CNWI). In addition she conducts our private lessons and behavior consults. Pam has competed in USDAA and NADAC agility competitions and currently competes in K9 Nose Work <sup>TM</sup>. She has NW2 titles on 2 of her 3 dogs. She lives, works and plays with 2 Australian Shepherds, Jinxx and Quattro, and one Great Pyreneese, Izzie. She is an APDT and NASCW member and regularly attends workshops and lectures on canine behavior and modification as well as the sport of K9 Nose Work <sup>TM</sup>.

Danielle Annis has been with it's a dog's world since 2006 instructing all levels of manners and specialty courses as well as private manners lessons. One of the programs she enjoys instructing the most at it's a dog's world is our Me & My Dog summer kids camp - she loves interacting with kids and their dogs. Danielle is an AKC Certified Canine Good Citizen Evaluator and regularly attends seminars and lectures on behavior modification. She resides with 2 Rottweilers Cheyenne and Simba.

Holly Roche joined our nose work instructor program in 2011. Holly and her Greyhound BoomBoom regularly attend nose work events such as NASCW sanctioned trials and mock trials. BoomBoom, with Holly as his handler, was the first Greyhound in the country to have achieved his Nose Work level 1 & Nose Work level 2 titles! Holly is a Certified Nose Work Instructor (CNWI) and a current member of NACSW™. In addition to BoomBoom, Holly resides with Logan, also a Greyhound who has titled at NW1 and NW2.

Robyn Januszewski joined it's a dog's world's training team in 2013 teaching manners and our specialty courses. She has been formally training dogs since 2008 and is member of Associated Pet Dog Trainers (APDT). In her profession, as a Biologist, she studies wolf and wolf-hybrid behavior and volunteers at Runs with Wolves Sanctuary in Maine. She has handled dogs in herding, tracking, formal obedience, agility and coursing canine sports. Robyn resides with Koda and Donoma, Malamute X's.

Meghan Ryder joined it's a dog's world training team in 2014 teaching both Basic Manners and Beginner Agility. She is a Certified Veterinary Technician (CVT), a member of both Maine Coast Runners Flyball Team and Associated Pet Dog Trainers (APDT). She is working towards her Certified Pet Dog Trainer – Knowledge Assessed (CPDT-KA) certification. In her spare time, Meghan competes in flyball, agility and nose work with her two Miniature Australian Shepherds, Zeke and Quinn.
